

John wrote that
others will know
we are Christians
because we love
one another.

